Playyyy

Legal notice and terms of use

Effective date: 12 October 2026

These terms explain what Playyyy is and what to keep in mind when using it. Playyyy is an independent browser-game directory, not a game publisher. The notice shown on the site is informational; it does not prevent you from browsing.

1. Your rules and responsibility

Use Playyyy only where and when it is permitted. You are responsible for following the laws and the school, workplace, device, account, and network rules that apply to you. If you are caught playing somewhere those rules prohibit it, that is your responsibility, not Playyyy's. Playyyy is not responsible for disciplinary action or other consequences resulting from that choice.

Do not use the site to break the law, gain unauthorized access, interfere with another person's systems, or bypass a firewall, access control, or other restriction. Do not disrupt the site or misuse its software or services.

2. Games and other third-party content

Games, names, artwork, and other game content belong to their respective creators or rights holders. Playyyy does not claim ownership of that content. A game may be linked to or hosted by Playyyy for browser playback; its creator's terms and rights still apply. Availability, features, and compatibility can change, and a game may be removed or stop working.

3. Browser storage and analytics

Playyyy may store preferences such as favorites, recently played games, theme choice, and dismissal of the site notice in your browser's local storage. These settings remain on that browser unless you clear its site data.

On the public Playyyy website, visits to game pages may be measured using StatCounter. StatCounter processes that measurement under its own policies. Playyyy does not require an account to browse games.

4. Availability

Playyyy and its games are provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis. Browsers, devices, networks, and game requirements differ. Playyyy does not promise that every game will load, support your browser, work with WebGL or other required features, remain available, or operate without interruption or errors.

5. Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Playyyy and its maintainer are not responsible for indirect or consequential loss, or for penalties or other consequences arising from your decision to use the site where it is prohibited. Nothing in these terms excludes a right or liability that cannot legally be excluded.

6. Changes and applicable law

These terms may be updated when the site changes. The current version and its effective date are published with the site. Belgian law applies where legally permitted, without removing any mandatory protections or rights that apply to you under local law.

7. Contact

Playyyy is maintained by Louis Paelinck in Belgium. For questions about the site or these terms, use the project's public contact page: https://github.com/louis141414/playyyy/issues.

Appendix A: MIT License

This license applies only to the software components of the Playyyy project. It does not grant rights to third-party games, artwork, names, or other content; those remain subject to their respective licenses.
